

PRODEVIX DATA SOLUTIONS

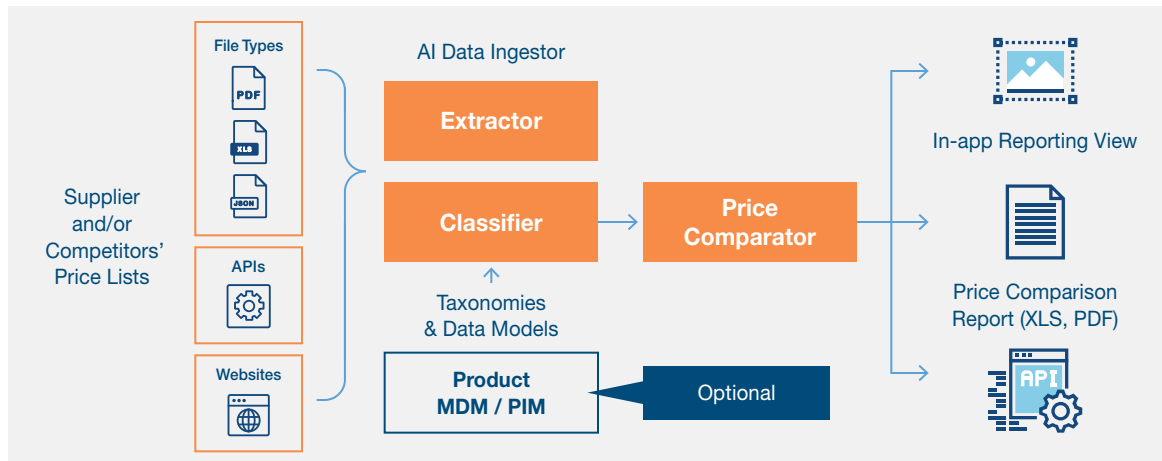

Price Comparator (AI)

Business Problem

- Is it too costly and time-consuming to compare multiple vendors' price lists every week BEFORE placing orders or negotiating contracts?
- Is it too difficult to read and interpret vendor price lists due to non-standard, cryptic product descriptions and units of measures?
- Do price analysis mistakes cause “over ordering” and too much waste?

Solution

Upload price lists via PDF, flat file or scrape websites, then the product data is cleansed and classified before being mapped for side-by-side comparisons and/or export to BI/Analytics.
